Mr. Kimmel said in previous Councils, it was pointed out repeatedly that they could not do this expansive a job in such a short time. He commended the committee for working hard and moving this forward. It is a fast track project. Mr. Kimmel praised staff for looking into the questions that have been raised and said he looked forward to seeing this project move forward.

Mrs. Bain spoke of the hard work that the staff had done and said they deserved commendation.

Mayor Knopp thanked staff, particularly Mr. Opdahl, Mr. Foley, Mr. Lo and Mr. Schmidt, who have worked tirelessly over the past few weeks. He said they have been working on the 30-year guarantee of these new roofs. In the past, the City lost money ,was involved in litigation and the health of the City's schoolchildren has suffered by using inferior roofing materials. He cited the problems with the various elementary schools, all of which have had repairs and now need roof replacement. The City can save money in the long term by insisting these jobs be done right with the best materials and insisting on long guarantees. Mayor Knopp cautioned that as a City, they have acted responsibly, diligently and quickly to get these project done over the summer. They are responding to one of the biggest unmet infrastructure needs that the City has had. However, they cannot guarantee that every roof will be constructed by the start of school next year. Rain delays, the ability of a contractor to meet the terms of a contract, etc., are not under their control. They have done everything possible to make these projects happen. They will be on site daily to make sure that delays are prevented. He has instructed the Law Department to have contracts drafted and a work schedule negotiated by May 10th. Work will begin on June 20th and end no later than August 28th. This is a massive project. Mayor Knopp said he was convinced that the City has worked responsibly and they will fight any effort to delay this project for unjustified reasons. Mr. Krummel recognized the architect, Tom Hibbard, and said he has provided exemplary service to the City. Mayor Knopp thanked Mr. Hibbard for attending the meeting and expressed his condolences on the loss of his father.

Mrs. Bain acknowledged D.J. Carey, President of the PTO Council, and a tireless worker on the Roofing Committee.
